Verification of High School Completion Status

If you were notified by the Financial Aid Office to access this document, then your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected by the federal processor for verification of high school completion. Therefore, you must provide the Financial Aid Office with one of the documents listed below. If you are unable to obtain the requested documentation, or you have already submitted this documentation to Carlow University for purpose of admission, you must contact the Financial Aid Office at 412-578-6389 or finaid@carlow.edu.

- A copy of your high school diploma.
- A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- A copy of an academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- If you were home schooled and your state law required you to obtain a secondary school completion credential, other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent, a copy of that credential.
- If you were home schooled and your state law did not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), you must submit a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a home school setting.
