

Joint Admission Agreement between Community College of Allegheny County and Carlow University for RN to BSN

Purpose

The purpose of this agreement is to outline the process for a Joint Admission program between Community College of Allegheny County (CCAC) and Carlow University (CU). This agreement pertains to the joint admission of students into the Associate of Science Degree in Nursing at CCAC and the Bachelor of Science in Nursing Degree at CU.

CCAC and CU stipulate that upon admission to the Associate of Science Degree in nursing at CCAC, students are simultaneously admitted into the RN to BSN program (or BSN) at CU. These students are guaranteed admission and will seamlessly enter into the RN to BSN program at CU, provided they have completed their Associate of Science Degree in nursing with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 and have successfully passed the NCLEX exam, having obtained a PA Registered Nursing License prior to beginning the RN-BSN nursing courses in the Carlow program.

Procedure

To be eligible for the Joint Admission Program, student must complete the joint admission application form provided by CCAC.

The Joint Admission Program is open to:

1. Applicants to CCAC who are first-time, matriculated freshmen, or
2. Returning adult students to CCAC, or
3. Transfer students to CCAC
4. Any currently matriculated CCAC student who applies to the Joint Admissions Program prior to completion of the CCAC nursing (ADN) program
5. All students must meet CU's admission requirements and CU's RN to BSN admission requirements as stated in the CU catalog and must meet all other admission and eligibility requirements. CU has sole discretion in admissions decisions.

Stipulations

CCAC and CU agree jointly to provide the following:

1. Each institution will designate a coordinator and an academic advisor for the Joint Admission Program.
2. CCAC and CU will develop cooperatively, publications pertaining to the joint admission program.

CU agrees to provide the following for Associate of Science in Nursing Degree candidates at CCAC who apply for Joint Admissions:

1. CU agrees to waive the application fee for all students who apply for Joint Admission to CU pursuant to the provisions of this agreement.
2. CU representatives will meet at CCAC with students in the Joint Admission Program. The purpose of these meetings will be to provide academic advice about CU's curriculum and general information about CU.
3. CU will outline for CCAC students the potential for earning a Master of Science in Nursing in an accelerated format with up to 12 graduate credits being earned while in Carlow's undergraduate RN-BSN program.
4. CCAC students will be permitted to enroll in one CU class in addition to those permitted through Pittsburgh Council on Higher Education (PCHE) charged at the CCAC tuition rate.
5. CU agrees to provide, as needed, information sessions with faculty and staff of CCAC who will be involved in consulting and advising students enrolled in the Joint Admission Program.
6. The CU Transfer Guide for CCAC students will be periodically updated. The guide will outline course equivalencies for required and recommended courses.
7. The Transfer Guide will be made accessible to all students on the CU website.

CCAC agrees to provide the following for Associate of Science in Nursing Degree candidates at CCAC who apply for Joint Admission:

1. CCAC will provide the necessary applications for students who want to apply for joint admission to CCAC and CU.
2. CCAC will be responsible for selection of candidates to the Joint Admissions Program. Applications; candidates will be evaluated according to the basic criteria in effect at CCAC and CU for the Joint Admissions Program.
3. By September 15th and February 15 of each year, CCAC will provide CU with a list of all students participating in the Joint Admissions Program. Also at this time, CCAC will provide a list of the Joint Admissions students scheduled to graduate at the end of each semester who have indicated their intent to attend CU the following semester along with copies of their transcripts to ensure that Carlow RN-BSN Program admission standards have been met.
4. By July 1 (for fall enrollees) and February 15 (for spring enrollees) CCAC will send CU official proof of receipt of the Associate's Degree for Joint Admission students and final transcripts.
5. CCAC will assist in setting up advisement programs involving CU faculty and staff.

Articulation for Transfer Students Not Participating in Joint Admission:

Procedures outlined herein relate specifically to students who simultaneously apply to CCAC and CU. Some students who apply to CCAC have not yet decided on their transfer destination, but during the course of study at CCAC may decide to transfer to CU.

CCAC and CU agree to facilitate transfer to CU of CCAC graduates not covered by this agreement by making available to them the same academic advisement and consultation made available to Joint Admission students. It is understood, however, that students not covered by the Joint Admission agreement must apply and meet the admission standards of CU.
