

Joint Admission Agreement between Community College of Beaver County and Carlow University for RN to BSN

Purpose

The purpose of this agreement is to outline the process for a Joint Admission program between Community College of Beaver County (CCBC) and Carlow University (CU). This agreement pertains to the joint admission of students into the Associate of Science Degree in Nursing at CCBC and the RN to BSN program at CU and to students who decide to jointly enroll while completing their ADN degree.

CCBC and CU stipulate that upon admission to the Associate of Science Degree in nursing at CCBC, students may simultaneously be admitted into the RN to BSN program (or BSN) at CU. These students are guaranteed admission and will seamlessly enter into the RN to BSN program at CU, provided they have completed their Associate of Science Degree in nursing with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 and have successfully passed the NCLEX exam, having obtained a Professional Registered Nursing License prior to beginning the RN-BSN nursing courses in the Carlow program. In addition, students must comply with the procedure outlined below.

Procedure

To be eligible for the Joint Admission Program, students must complete the joint admission application form provided by CCBC.

The Joint Admission Program is open to:

1. Applicants to CCBC who are first-time, matriculated freshmen, or
2. Returning adult students to CCBC, or
3. Transfer students to CCBC
4. Any currently matriculated CCBC student who applies to the Joint Admissions Program prior to completion of the CCBC nursing (ADN) program
5. All students must meet CU's admission requirements and CU's RN to BSN admission requirements as stated in the CU catalog and must meet all other admission and eligibility requirements. CU has sole discretion in admissions decisions.

Stipulations

CCBC and CU agree jointly to provide the following:

1. Each institution will designate a coordinator and an academic advisor for the Joint Admission Program.

2. CCBC and CU will develop cooperatively, publications pertaining to the joint admission program.

CU agrees to provide the following for Associate of Science in Nursing Degree candidates at CCBC who apply for Joint Admissions:

1. CU agrees to waive the application fee for all students who apply for Joint Admission to CU pursuant to the provisions of this agreement.
2. CU representatives will meet at CCBC with students in the Joint Admission Program. The purpose of these meetings will be to provide academic advice about CU's curriculum and general information about CU.
3. CU will outline for CCBC students the potential for earning a Master of Science in Nursing in an accelerated format with up to 12 graduate credits being earned while in Carlow's undergraduate RN-BSN program.
4. CCBC students will be permitted to enroll in one CU class before completing their AS degree charged at the CCBC tuition rate.
5. CU agrees to provide, as needed, information sessions with faculty and staff of CCBC who will be involved in consulting and advising students enrolled in the Joint Admission Program.
6. The CU Transfer Guide for CCBC students will be periodically updated. The guide will outline course equivalencies for required and recommended courses.
7. The Transfer Guide will be made accessible to all students on the CU website.

CCBC agrees to provide the following for Associate of Science in Nursing Degree candidates at CCBC who apply for Joint Admission:

1. CCBC will provide the necessary applications for students who want to apply for joint admission to CCBC and CU.
2. CCBC will be responsible for selection of candidates to the Joint Admissions Program. Applications; candidates will be evaluated according to the basic criteria in effect at CCBC and CU for the Joint Admissions Program.
3. By September 15th and February 15 of each year, CCBC will provide CU with a list of all students participating in the Joint Admissions Program. Also at this time, CCBC will provide a list of the Joint Admissions students scheduled to graduate at the end of each semester who have indicated their intent to attend CU the following semester along with copies of their transcripts to ensure that Carlow RN-BSN Program admission standards have been met.
4. By July 1 (for fall enrollees) and February 15 (for spring enrollees) CCBC will send CU official proof of receipt of the Associate's Degree for Joint Admission students and final transcripts.
5. CCBC will assist in setting up advisement programs involving CU faculty and staff.

Articulation for Transfer Students Not Participating in Joint Admission:

Procedures outlined herein relate specifically to students who simultaneously apply to CCBC and CU. Some students who apply to CCBC have not yet decided on their transfer destination, but during the course of study at CCBC may decide to transfer to CU.

CCBC and CU agree to facilitate transfer to CU of CCBC graduates not covered by this agreement by making available to them the same academic advisement and consultation made available to Joint Admission students. It is understood, however, that students not covered by the Joint Admission agreement must apply and meet the admission standards of CU.
