

Joint Admission Agreement between Community College of Beaver County
and
Carlow University Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) Program

Purpose

The purpose of this agreement is to outline the process for a Joint Admission program between Community College of Beaver County (CCBC) and Carlow University (CU). This agreement pertains to the joint admission of students into the Associate of Social Work Degree (ASW) at CCBC and the Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program at CU. The agreement also outlines a process for a Joint Admissions program between CCBC's Associate of Social Work program and CU's Bachelor of Social Work program.

CCBC and CU stipulate that upon admission to the Associate of Social Work at CCBC, students are simultaneously admitted into the Bachelor of Social Work program at CU. These students are guaranteed admission and will seamlessly enter into BSW program at CU, provided they have completed their Associate of Social Work Degree with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5.

Procedure

To be eligible for the Joint Admission Program, students must complete the joint admission application form provided by CCBC.

The Joint Admission Program is open to:

1. Applicants to CCBC who are first-time, matriculated freshmen, or
2. Returning adult students to CCBC, or
3. Transfer students to CCBC
4. Any currently matriculated CCBC student who applies to the Joint Admissions Program prior to completion of the CCBC Associate of Social Work Degree program
5. All students must meet CU's admission requirements and CU's Bachelor of Social Work admission requirements as stated in the CU catalog and must meet all other admission and eligibility requirements. CU has sole discretion in admissions decisions.

Stipulations

CCBC and CU agree jointly to provide the following:

1. Each institution will designate an academic advisor for the Joint Admission Program.

2. CCBC and CU will develop cooperatively, publications pertaining to the joint admission program.

CU agrees to provide the following for Associate of Social Work Degree students at CCBC who apply for Joint Admissions:

1. CU agrees to waive the application fee for all students who apply for Joint Admission to CU pursuant to the provisions of this agreement.
2. CU representatives will meet with CCBC students in the Joint Admission Program. The purpose of these meetings will be to provide academic advice about CU's curriculum and general information about CU.
3. CU will outline for CCBC students the potential for earning a Master of Social Work in an accelerated format with Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) approved advance standing credits being earned while in Carlow's undergraduate BSW program.
4. CCBC students will be permitted to enroll in one CU class before completing their ASW degree charged at the CCBC tuition rate.
5. CU agrees to provide, as needed, information sessions on location or virtually at CCBC with faculty and staff of CCBC who will be involved in consulting and advising students enrolled in the Joint Admission Program.
6. CU will allow CCBC students to join Carlow's Social Work Student Association which will allow CCBC students access to club sponsored events, professional development, relationship building, and Carlow education resources.
7. The CU Transfer Guide for CCBC students will be periodically updated. The guide will outline course equivalencies for required and recommended courses.
8. The Transfer Guide will be made accessible to all students on the CU website.
9. CU will waive general education courses under PA TRAC for CCBC ASW students who complete an associate degree prior to entering CU. In addition, CU will accept the completed ASW degree from CCBC provided those students have taken the equivalent of the following CU courses: Math 115, Biology 157, SW 104, SW 201, SW 214, and SW270.

CCBC agrees to provide the following for Associate of Social Work Degree candidates at CCBC who apply for Joint Admission:

1. CCBC will provide the necessary applications for students who want to apply for joint admission to CCBC and CU).

2. CCBC will be responsible for validating eligibility of candidates for the Joint Admissions Program. Candidates will be evaluated according to the basic criteria in effect at CCBC and CU for the Joint Admissions Program.
3. By September 15th and February 15 of each year, CCBC will provide CU with a list of all students participating in the Joint Admissions Program. At this time, CCBC will also provide a list of the Joint Admissions students scheduled to graduate at the end of each semester who have indicated their intent to attend CU the following semester along with copies of their transcripts to ensure that CU BSW admission standards have been met.
4. By July 1 (for fall enrollees) and February 15 (for spring enrollees) CCBC will send CU official proof of receipt of the Associate of Social Work Degree for Joint Admission students and final transcripts.
5. CCBC will assist in setting up advisement programs involving CU faculty and staff, which may include classroom presentations and other recruitment opportunities.

Articulation for Transfer Students Not Participating in Joint Admission:

Procedures outlined herein relate specifically to students who simultaneously apply to CCBC and CU. Some students who apply to CCBC have not yet decided on their transfer destination; however, during the course of study at CCBC may decide to transfer to CU.

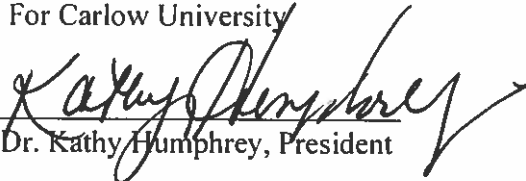

CCBC and CU agree to facilitate transfer to CU of CCBC graduates not covered by this agreement by making available to them the same academic advisement and consultation made available to Joint Admission students. It is understood, however, that students not covered by the Joint Admission agreement must apply and meet the admission standards of CU.

Terms and Conditions

- A. Term of the Agreement. This agreement is intended to be in effect for five (5) years from the date of signature. It will be reviewed annually.
- B. Termination of the Agreement. Community College of Beaver County or Carlow may terminate this agreement for any reason or without reason with ninety (90) days' notice from either party. Any student who is admitted to the joint program before termination of the agreement will have the opportunity to complete the program.
- C. Nondiscrimination. The parties agree to continue their respective policies of nondiscrimination based on sex, age, race, color, creed, national origin, disability and any other category protected by federal, state, and/or local law.

- D. Relationship of Parties. The relationship between the parties to this Agreement to each other is that of independent contractors. The relationship of the parties to this contract to each other shall not be construed to constitute a partnership, joint venture or any other relationship, other than that of independent contractors.
- E. Modification of Agreement. This agreement shall be modified only in writing with the signed authorization of Community College of Beaver County and Carlow University.
- F. Promotion of Agreement. Both parties have the right to use this agreement and the name of Community College of Beaver County and Carlow University in all promotional activities, including college catalogs and recruitment or advisement activities.
- G. Liability. Neither of the parties shall assume any liabilities of the other. As to liability to each other or death to persons or damages to property, the parties do not waive any defense as a result of entering into this agreement.
- H. Entire Agreement. This agreement represents the entire understanding between the parties. No other prior or contemporaneous oral or written understandings or promises exist in regard to this relationship. Any changes, corrections or additions to this agreement shall be in the form of a supplemental agreement signed by all appropriate parties and setting forth therein the proposed change, correction or addition. This agreement between CCBC and CU does not affect any other agreements between CCBC and CU.

For Community College of Beaver County

_____
Dr. Roger W. Davis, President

For Carlow University

_____
Dr. Kathy Humphrey, President

11-23-21
_____
Date

01/10/2022
_____
Date